A TEXAS DUEL.—A party, composed of Water Turner, E. L. Brown and Thompson, from Kaufman county, had been in that locality several days with race horses. On Thursday last Frank and Lacy Robinson, Taylor Campbell and Wiley Norman, all of Hill county, went to the camp of the Kaufman county men and got into a dispute with them about a pony race, which resulted in a fight. The party agreed to meet the next day and settle the thing in a more satisfactory manner. So at 10 o'clock on Friday morning the Hill county men took a stand at the place agreed upon, in readiness for action. They had not waited long when the other party rode to the spot. The men were all armed with six shooters, except Turner, who carried a needle carbine. When the parties had approached within twenty yards of each other, Taylor Campbell fired at Turner and the battle commenced. Turner leaped from his horse and fired three shots with his terrible carbine. The first shot went crashing through Campbell's hat; the second caused the instant death of Frank Robinson; and the last shot mortally wounded Lacy Robinson. By this time a ball from Thompson's revolver had passed through Norman's breast; a boy aged seventeen years, and all of the Hill county party lay weeping in their blood. Some twenty shots were fired altogether. More than half of the shots were by the Hill county party, but strange to say, none of the Kaufman county men were in the least hurt. Campbell and Frank Robinson each fired five shots; Norman and Lacy Robinson also fired, but the only damage they did was to kill Turner's horse. The surviving party mounted horses and fled the country. A hundred men started in pursuit. Both the Robinsons have families. Campbell and Norman are unmarried. The Kaufman county party are all boys, none of them being more than nineteen or twenty years of age. —Waco Examiner.

THEY INTEND TO HAVE A TOURNAMENT.—Yesterday morning the Executive Committee of the Centennial Riding Tournament met in Judges' Hall to perfect arrangements for holding a chivalric tournament within the Exhibition grounds. Mr. J. S. Suit, of Maryland, president. Resolutions were passed appointing Mr. Suit marshal of the tournament, with authority to make the appointment of the marshal's aids, heralds, and all others who are to take part in the tournament. Gen. Duncan S. Walker acted as secretary. The tournament will take place on the inside of the Centennial grounds on the 19th of October, or Maryland Day. There are to be fifteen knights, representing the thirteen original States, and one representing the whole Union, and one representing the Centennial. There is to be one Queen of Love and Beauty and four maids of honor. These latter are to represent the north, south, east and west. In addition to the medal awarded by the United States Centennial Commission the Executive Committee will offer valuable prizes to be titled for. A sub-committee consisting of Adjutant General Boyd, of Maryland; Adjutant General Nye, of Maine; and General Duncan S. Walker, of the District of Columbia, was appointed to select the orders and judges. Applications for knighthood of aids, heralds, &c. It is expected that 150 persons will take part in the various capacities. There is to be a grand ball in the evening at the Academy of Music, where the Queen of Love and Beauty will be crowned, and the prizes be awarded. —Phila. North American.

COLORADO DEMOCRATS.—The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Post says: The rapidity with which the colored people are coming over to the democrats is astonishing. It reminds me of an anecdote which I heard to-day from an old army officer. He said when the celebrated Indian chief Black Hawk first left Washington he went away deeply offended with the whites, and swore that he would never wear anything that a white man wore. The next time Black Hawk came to Washington the army officer was astonished to see the great chief dressed in a swallow tail coat with big brass buttons, black pants, beaver hat, gold head case and massive gold spectacles. "Why, Chief," said the army officer, "I thought you said you were not going to wear anything that a white man wore." "Chief, wrong," replied Black Hawk, "Can't do without white man, and this is the way with the colored people. They are that they can't do without the democratic party and therefore are coming over en masse."

CHEAP CARS IN NEW YORK.—A company is now organized in New York under the title of the New York Cab Company, limited, for the purpose of supplying cheap and improved transit in that city and vicinity. The necessity for this has long been felt, and many attempts have been made in the direction in which the present effort is progressing. The company will be organized with a capital of $500,000, in 5,000 shares of $100 each. Four wheeled cars, horse cars and other vehicles will be introduced, the charge to be fifty cents an hour. The cars will seat four, with arrangements on the top for baggage. The drivers will be in livery, and stands convenient to every thoroughfare will be occupied at all hours of the day and night. The subscription books will be closed the 7th of October, and ten days later a meeting of stockholders will be held, to choose directors and perfect organization.
